Participant Expectations. Odyssey participants are expected to conduct themselves mannerly and orderly during participation. The Office of Alumni Relations does not condone any unethical behavior to include any form of academic misconduct.

Disability Accommodations. If you are a student with a disability who requires accommodation, please contact the Office of Alumni Relations Lifelong Learning via email at odyssey@jhu.edu.

Health & Safety. The Office of Alumni Relations works to promote and protect the health, safety, welfare, and rights of all its course participants. As members of the University community, participants accept certain responsibilities which support the educational mission and create an environment in which all participants are afforded the same opportunity to succeed. Vaccination is required unless an exception has been granted by the university for health or religious reasons. For more information visit <https://covidinfo.jhu.edu/>.

Course Evaluation. Please remember to complete an online course evaluation survey at the conclusion of your course. These evaluations are an important tool in the ongoing efforts to improve instructional quality and strengthen programs. The results of the course evaluations are kept anonymous – your instructor will only receive aggregated data and comments for the entire class.

Diversity & Inclusion. Johns Hopkins University is a community committed to sharing values of diversity and inclusion in order to achieve and sustain excellence. We believe excellence is best promoted by being a diverse group of students, faculty, and staff who are committed to creating a climate of mutual respect that is supportive of one another's success.
